PERSONAL PROJECTS

Dynamic Exam Simulation interface using React.js (04/2022 - 05/2022) ↗

- This is a my latest React front end design project. its a exam simulator that supports all real word exam functionalities. It uses almost all core React features, like hooks, redux store , portals, context etc. it is a stunning sophisticated UI

A stable task manager REST API (05/2022 - 06/2022) ↗

- This is a secure and robust REST API that supports all CRUD operations using mongodb database. Its all routes are secured with user authentication. Its supported UI is still under development, but the api is hosted on Heroku and its accessed using base URL https://my-task-manager-1.herokuapp.com for more info visit github

Crop yield prediction using machine learning (03/2022 - Present) ↗

- This is collaboration minor project for college academics. My contribution in this project is to code in python for model training and testing. I also contributed to give a stunning UI for this project. its a ongoing project.

CERTIFICATES
